Our WAGOLL

Once upon a time there was a little, old lady. She was very unhappy because she thought her house was a squash and a squeeze.

One day, a wise, old man heard her moaning and told her, "Take in your hen."

The white, feathery hen laid an egg and flapped around the house, breaking the jug.

Next the wise, old man told the lady to take in her greedy, naughty goat. However, the goat chewed the curtains and nibbled the table leg.

Afterwards, the little, old lady took in her huge, muddy pig. The pig chased the hen and gobbled up all the food in the larder.

Finally, the little, old lady took in her energetic, young cow. The cow started jumping on the table! The wise, old man told the little, old lady to take all the animals out and, just like that, the house seemed gigantic!
